There exists only one place in Mexico where the pleasure of tradition combines with a privileged location. Forming a part of a group of historical buildings par excellence. The Best Western Hotel Majestic, National Palace and the Metropolitan Cathedral share a central and unique area: The Zocalo Plaza of the largest city in the world. This was built on the southern part of the most beautiful ceremonial center in pre-Hispanic America. The architecture of the Best Western Hotel Majestic is an experience to the visitor, the marvelous splendor of progressive times. It expresses cordiality and thoughtfulness for details.
